

Mei-Lan Lee has 15 years teaching experience in Chinese Language, 10 of which include working at Qiao Ji Mandarin, and more than 20 years of experience working with children. She graduated from the World College of Journalism in Broadcasting in Taipei. Her background knowledge of Mandarin is comprehensive. She feels very responsible for her students and makes sure they are able to present what they have learned. Some of her talents include being the Chinese New Year Program Planner and Coordinator for several venues, coordinating and assessing Read Aloud Contests, directing Chinese language plays, and advocating for environmentally friendly lifestyles. She hopes her students can learn in a fun and interesting and exciting environment to foster their interest in learning about Chinese culture. She also hope that the long-standing Chinese culture will continue to flourish overseas forever.
